

2016 Jane's Walk on Saturday Morning

Explore the Emerging Environs of Magoun Square

Saturday, May 7th
10 AM - Noon
Meet at CVS Plaza

Be a tourist in your own community! Join us for the kickoff to Somerville's May Preservation Month—with a leisurely stroll through historic Magoun Square to explore the neighborhoods of Lowell and Hudson Streets, and end at the new “Highland Avenue Hot Block.”

- Residents and business owners, current and former, please come and share your memories, observations, and vision for the future as the area continues to grow and thrive.
- Find out how the industrial history of the Square has evolved, with many new residential buildings, small businesses, and creative entrepreneurs.
- Learn how public policies and investment have shaped the landscape and housing styles, as seen through the eyes of the people who live and work there.
- The walk will end in time to enjoy lunch at a neighborhood eatery and then visit the Somerville Museum, open noon to 5 PM, with a terrific selection of this year's Somerville Open Studio artwork on display!

Jane's Walk is a global movement of neighbor-led walking tours inspired by urbanist Jane Jacobs. Come celebrate her 100th birthday and learn more about the evolving character of the area. For more info, see janeswalk.org
