Immigrant Dreams and Realities in Somerville

Join us for a celebration with Laura Hoguet's 8th grade students from Somerville's Healey School. Building on the Museum's Project Local, a hands-on history learning program, Ms Hoguet's students are examining the dreams versus the reality for recent immigrant communities in Somerville. Original research, oral histories from families and friends, and visual art will enliven this important conversation about the contemporary immigrant experience, led by Somerville's next generation.

The Somerville Museum is located at the corner of Central Street and Westwood Road.

Museum hours: Thursday 2–7 p.m., Friday 2–5 p.m., Saturday 12–5 p.m.
